

Remember fairy.

Do you remember your life in fairy?

When we flew together through green leaf trees.

You held my hand so gently I thought you would never leave.

Today you remember not, lost in the human mind, not a trace of fairy kind.

I am here today as Nay to show you the way.

Back into your forgotten fairy past, this time your love will last.

Come with me to a wooded glade; cool yourself in forest shade.

Pan plays his pipes, a jolly tune, steady now, or you will swoon.

Fairy energy, can you feel, believe me, WE ARE REAL.

Not a fantasy from a book, not a hallucination. - LOOK.

We are here among the flowers, weaving tales with our fairy powers.

Hear our laughter, mischievous that we are, we come from a distant star.

Content now to play held within a gentle breeze.

Dreaming fairy dreams among the trees.

Look into my eyes, deep into a fairy gaze; look carefully through the haze.

A scene does form of such beauty, your mirrored thoughts for me to see.

Nymph, Pixie, Elf or Fae

Come join us today, we invite you all to come to see

What is like to be a fairy just like me.
