

Calling all
Light Workers

As we enter the end times, many of us are forgetting the Truth and falling for the illusion, which is a Game.

Remember in Truth, there are no beings outside of yourself.

There is no outside reality, it is all a reflection of your inside state of being.

Nothing can be manifest, which is not you.

For in Truth, there is no separation.

As you point your fingers, at those you consider to be less evolved than yourself, remember they are you.

If you are God and you are Everything, then there are no outside beings.

There is not an enemy, other than yourself.

As you create your own reality, you create these negative beings, which are being talked about in many of the new-age circles.

These beings are the un- evolved aspects of yourself.

It is all a game of imagination.

You are the Creator playing with itself.

Many are following others, do not fool yourselves into thinking, your way is the only way, for this is simply the illusion once again gaining control.

The illusion was meant to be played in this way; it was fun for a while.

But it is getting closer to the time, when we will wake up and realise that not only is it a game, but there are no other players, other than yourself.

There is much negative talk about beings, such as the Zeta, who everyone loves to blame.

They have communicated many times, that they can morph and change, to reflect the ideas within the minds of the people, they connect with.

If you consider them to be negative, then they will be just that, if you consider them to be positive, then they will be that too.

They are very flexible; or rather I should say you are very flexible.

For if there are no beings that are truly outside of yourself.

The Zeta, (in what ever way you perceive them),

Are you.

The same concept goes for all beings.

They are reflections of your inner self, as the

Godhead split into many parts.

The game plan was to indulge yourself in the illusion, and believe it for a while.

However it was also part of the plan, to awaken from the illusion and embrace the Truth.

This time is now.

Wake up.

We are creating our own reality, and we are also creating the path back to ourselves.

Not one path is better than another, not one path is going to be more successful than another.

It is all a game, and a funny one at that.

So when you think your form of meditation, or light techniques are better than another's,

Remember there are many paths back to yourself.

If we spent more time focused on our own way, rather than trying to force others to tread our path with us,
then we would already be

Home.

If you do not like my words or consider me to be wrong, then why did you manifest me in your reality to speak these words?? I am your creation, I cannot be anything else. Have you forgotten who you really are? Or are you choosing to stay in the illusion? Maybe if we go back over the initial contract and its details, we will remember that this is a game...

Divine Contract...

- 1) Split self, into many parts; give each part a life of its own, as the creator of its own reality. Some parts will know that its other parts are itself, in its separation, others will not. Allow, it will be fun.
- 2) Allow each part, to create an illusionary outside reality, which will reflect its idea, of who it considers itself to be. This reality can be a dimension, star system, planetary system, or body, what ever it wishes to manifest.
- 3) Allow each part to interact with all other parts, in the illusion. Pretend that there is separation between each part and allow a multitude of experiences to occur between each part.
- 4) Embrace all realities and allow the forgetting, it will enable the self to lose itself in the game.
- 5) Take this to the ultimate extreme, fragment self until it believes there is an outside reality and there ARE others. Embrace the illusion and make it real... It will be fun.
- 6) Continue until all has been experienced and there is no more moves to play, no characters left in the wings, all are now on stage. Watch as the final scene unfolds dark part against light part. Hear the crowd hiss and boo the baddies. For a moment allow self to believe, there is one over another.
- 7) When the curtain is called, you can awaken and remember, it was all just a game.

I – the Source, the Creator, the Godhead, hereby agree to the above contract.

..... (Place signature here).

Date .....the very beginning and the very end of all time, in this now moment.

