

Serpent Consciousness

The family of Snake consciousness are part of inner earth. They have been there for thousands of years and are a harmonious and evolved species. The serpent beings do not come from one place in particular. They are held in the cosmic waves that snake their way, through the universe. They are from a very high vibrational dimension. When the source first began to create the physical universe, it sent pulses of energy through the void. It stimulated the void, it moved it, and through this movement it created ripples of consciousness. Massive currents of energy resembling gold and silver moved in massive spirals throughout the whole universe. As these spirals began to drop down through the dimensions, they became denser and denser, forming beings. These beings were designed to hold the vibration of the creator's vision. They created something out of nothing. This is where the serpent race began. As snake beings they contain the vibration of the void, the great nothing. They appear to us as having bodies, snake bodies but inside they are a large expanse of nothing. Their outside bodies resembled the serpents, that we have on earth but they are rainbowed in the most amazing patterns and designs. Have you ever heard of the rainbow serpent? The Hawaiian people worshipped this deity as the creator of the universe. There are black snakes that still resemble the void, there are snake beings that have elevated their consciousness, to hold the original vibration of everything, and these resemble rainbows.

"Far off in Dreamtime, there were only people, no animals or birds, no trees or bushes, no hills or mountains.

The country was flat. Goorialla, the great Rainbow Serpent, stirred and set off to look for his own tribe. He traveled across Australia from South to North. He reached Cape York where he stopped and made a big red mountain called Naralullgan. He listened to the wind and heard only voices speaking strange languages.

This is not my country; the people here speak a different tongue. I must look for my own people. Goorialla left Naralullgan and his huge body made a deep gorge where he came down. He traveled north for many days and his tracks made the creeks and rivers as he journeyed North. Goorialla made two more mountains, one of the Naradunga was long made of granite, the other had sharp peaks and five caves and was called, Minalinha. One day Goorialla heard singing and said, "Those are my people, they are holding a big Bora." At the meeting place of the two rivers, Goorialla found his own people singing and dancing. He watched for a long time, then he came out and was welcomed by his people. He showed the men how to dress properly and taught them to dance. A big storm was gathering, so all the people built humpies for shelter.

Two young men, the bil-bil or Rainbow Lorikeet brothers came looking for shelter but no one had any room. They asked their grandmother, the Star Woman but she had too many dogs and couldn't help them. the Bil-bil brothers went to Goorialla who was snoring in his humpy but he had no room. The rain got heavier and the boys went back to Goorialla and called out that the rain was heavy. Goorialla said, "All right come in now." The Bil-bil bothers ran into Goorialla's mouth and he swallowed them. Then he began to worry about what the people would say when they found the boys missing. He decided to travel North to Bora-bunaru, the only great natural mountain in the land. Next morning the people found that the boys were gone and saw the tracks of Goorialla and knew that he had swallowed them.

You may never see these lakes or mountains, but after the rain you will see his spirit in the sky, which is the rainbow. This is the reason why he is called Goorialla the Rainbow Serpent. "

I want to describe a scene to you, as this will trigger memories in your mind and feelings in your body. Imagine if you will a temple, it is warmly and softly lit, the walls of this temple are shimmering, with all the colours of the rainbow, the walls look like they are the scales of snakes. The walls are curved and rounded. All over the walls there is fluid oil like substance that has a strange almost erotic smell. This oil seems to come from inside the walls; it drips and oozes from the walls itself. In the centre of this temple is a pool of oil. It shimmers with all, the colours of the rainbow. As you look at this pool it begins to ripple and out of its movement, a being begins to form. This being at first resembles a spiral. As the movement increases it shapes and forms a snake being, beautiful and enticing. She is strong looking but extremely flexible and fluid. She has the body of a snake yet she has arms that are long and fingers that radiate light. Her head is the shape of a cobra, with slit snake eyes. If you looked into these dark black eyes, you would fall under the spell, of this serpent consciousness. She is covered with the most iridescent scales that create hypnotising patterns that would change your consciousness, just by looking at them. She is so beautiful, alluring and sexually enticing. This is no ordinary temple, it is inside the belly of a giant serpent; you see the serpent consciousness use snakes as their space ships. These giant serpents travel through the universe, visiting many systems and places, carrying a special frequency with them.

In order to access this level of yourself and bring this serpent energy into the physical life and body, your soul wants you to dance. Dance in fluid spirals and imagine that which you want to create and feed the image with the energy you feel coming up, in your body. You will be creating a space for your dream to be created. Start with personal dreams and then expand to incorporate dreams that are coming from the will of Gaia, the planet earth. It is time for your Serpent power.
