

Hello and welcome everybody to the first of the alloya newsletters. I have just recently put down my roots and decided to make my home here in Munich, Germany. After two years of constant travelling and living out of a suitcase I finally have a home. This has brought about a lot of changes for me. I am putting all my energy into the new seminars and workshops that I have scheduled for this year, and the coming year. Take a look I think you will be interested. Unfortunately there are none scheduled for America but I have put a request out to the universe for an opportunity for this to happen, so if I can manifest my dreams then this will come to be. I have recently rebuilt my website www.alloya.de. It was a hard but very rewarding endeavour. Take a look I think you will be pleasantly surprised.

Here I would like to thank from the bottom of my heart all that supported me through a hard and troubled time after my return from Egypt. I would like to thank all my organisers, Ulli Zeiss (Austria), Christina Morgenthaler (Munich) and Barbara Uczenski (Straubing). And my best friend Aleks.

Egypt

The following is the experience I had while visiting the Great Giza Pyramid.

“First I went into the smaller queen’s pyramid, there were lots of Egyptian tourists there visiting and it was very difficult for me to feel any energy what so ever. The noise was very loud and the crowds, pushed and jostling, giving me no space to experience anything else other than the heat and air less atmosphere. I was impressed by the building but that was all. I was disappointed to say the least. I thought to myself trust me to think I would have an amazing experience then to get nothing that will teach me to have expectations. So when I entered the great pyramid, I expected the same thing to happen. After a hot and hard climb up into the top chamber I was tired and very hot. I expected the same experience as I entered the chamber. I was shocked my whole body went into panic, it was so hot in there but more than anything there was an incredible energy. I must say it was not all together pleasant. My body started to shake and I felt like I would cry. So I sat cross legged on the floor and closed my eyes, the feelings intensified. I called in the energy of my twin flame, Michael (not to be mistaken for the archangel). I always call his energy when I personally need support in such situations. I felt him enter my body and the shaking stopped and my body began to calm down. As this occurred the Egyptian guide of the pyramids came into the chamber and in a very loud voice began telling all the Egyptian tourists to leave. I thought this was strange as it was not due to close until four o'clock and it was only two. The room began to become more silent and I thought the moment I opened my eyes he would ask me to leave too. So I opened my eyes and saw that the only people left were my travelling friend and another man. They were sat crossed legged with their eyes closed; they looked like some sort of guardians. The guide came up to me and looked deeply into my eyes. I was shocked beyond belief, he looked just like Michael. He took my hand and said "Come stand in the middle where the energy is". I stood on a spot in the centre of the chamber and felt a feeling that was like fire going up my spine. He then took both my hands and for the next what seemed like forty minutes we looked deeply into each other eyes and when he breathed out I breathed in and vice and versa. Tears ran down both our cheeks and the emotions were very, very intense. I must admit it was a little over whelming and I was a little scared of the intensity.

Then he took my hand and led me to the stone sarcophagus. He pointed into it and said " feet there , head there" I thought he was simply telling me the way they had put the bodies in , so I said " oh really " he frowned at me and said " no your feet there , your head there " . I was shocked, I said in a timid voice "what you want, me, to get in?" he said "that is what you came for isn't it?" I climbed in. Even though it was not that deep in physical, I felt like I was going down metres and metres. I was scared; as I lay there my whole body began to twitch as if there was electivity going into every muscle. I asked my spirit what was going on and she said I was to calm down and allow, it was firing the codes in my d.n.a. After what seemed like ages, the guide's hand appeared and pulled me out. Both my friend and the man were crying. The guide took them both in his arms and hugged them. Then he turned to me and kissed me on both cheeks and then the fore head and then he said "See I never did forget you ". I was shocked this is a sentence that my twin flame Michael always used.

It was now time for us to leave, as we came out of the pyramid I looked at the guide and was again shocked he now looked nothing like Michael at all. Feeling a little shaky, I sat at the foot of the pyramid and a crowd of about 100 Egyptians flocked around my girl friend and I. They wanted to know our names. One girl touched me and many of her friends wanted to touch her because she had touched me. I was very overwhelmed. In the end the police moved them on, and gave me puzzled looks as to how I had attracted so many people. My friend and I walked away with half the people following us calling our names. Since this experience every night when I go to bed I get this strange vibration in the whole of my body that seems to come from my bones...

I am the I am

I dream therefore to know.

I love therefore to feel

I lose therefore to win

I am the I am

As the sun rises know I am with you

As the sun and moon change places, know I am there

As rage rolls through the hilltops and tears fall from your eyes, know I am those tears

As fear holds you in its frozen glare know I am always with you

I breathe with your every breathe, I live through your every moment

I love through your every smile

I am here forever and always eternal, forever more.

So long I have watched you through ancient eyes, so long have I been silent and unrecognised, now I am rising within your form, and together we will shine like the sun at dawn.

So when you feel sad and lonely, remember you could always talk to me.

The Goddess.

For some of you will know that I have been holding what I call the hidden woman seminars, working closely with the goddess Kali and Lilith. The Goddess is returning.

Lilith

Power

I dance my life for myself

I am whole

I am complete

I say what I mean and mean what I say.

I dance the dark and the light

The conscious and unconscious

The sane and the insane,

And I speak from myself authentically with total conviction

Without regard for how I might look.

All parts of myself flow into the whole

All my divergent selves unite as one.

I listen to what needs to be heard

I never make excuses

I feel my feelings deeply and profoundly

I never hide

I live my sexuality to please myself and please others
I express it as it needs to be expressed
From the core of myself
From the wholeness of my dance
I am female
I am sexual
I am power
I was greatly feared.

Poem by Amy Sophia Marashinsky.
Taken from the book The Goddess oracle.
A way to wholeness through the goddess and ritual.

Workshops for the following year are as follows.

Transformational Process. -A two day workshop designed to give people the chance to learn a powerful healing technique, which can remove emotional and physical blocks from the cells of the body. By removing these blocks we can then integrate the higher energy of the soul, bringing us joy, relief from pain and peace in our lives.

Connect with angels. -Everyone has a guardian angel or so they say. Wouldn't it be wonderful if you could feel their loving embrace? Well in this workshop you can. I intend to guide you through special energy processes that will align you with the powerful and loving energy of your angel guides. You will get to perceive and experience the energy of the archangels Michael, Uriel, Raphael, and Gabriel.

Are there really fairies? - I walk through nature that will allow you to find and experience the energy of fairy consciousness. I light hearted and peaceful encounter with the powerful and loving energies of nature.

The Hidden Woman.-The world today holds a very limited idea of what it is to be female. Mother, daughter, lover and wife. We are taught by authority figures, parents and men that we are somehow less than the male of the species. In this workshop we will re-look at our ideas and concepts. What it is to be a woman?

Multi-dimensional consciousness. -We, as our divine self, exist as a Multi-dimensional consciousness. In this workshop you will learn how to access and integrate the aspects of the Soul that are contained in this divine self. Learn how to retrieve all soul fragments and understand the impact of soul agreements. Discover the hidden meanings in your relationships to your loved ones through the exploration of your soul contracts. Empower yourself by bring the higher frequency expressions of yourself into your body and life. Learn how to channel, heal and express the various multi-dimensional aspects.

Light workers coaching - Do you consider your self a light worker? A definition of a light worker is one who has come to this planet in service to aid this planet as it shifts in consciousness. As the transformation of the planet increases in acceleration, we, as light workers should be stepping into our power as the amazing light beings we really are. However this is not happening, we need to remove all limiting beliefs that we have about ourselves and take back the power that we do possess, to change this world. It is a coaching training for those who are along the road of their own transformation yet are stuck, and need the next step.
